

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for your interest in employment opportunities at Illinois State University. Illinois State University, founded in 1857, is the oldest public university in Illinois. Illinois State is a coeducational, residential university that emphasizes undergraduate study with almost 21,000 students. Currently, the University offers 72 undergraduate programs, 42 master's programs, 10 doctoral programs, a Specialist in School Psychology and 8 graduate level certificates. Illinois State University (www.IllinoisState.edu) is committed to fostering a small-college atmosphere with large-university opportunities and promoting the highest academic standards in teaching, scholarship, and community service. Illinois State University has been named a "Great College to Work For" by The Chronicle of Higher Education.

Illinois State University is located in the growing twin cities of Bloomington and Normal, with a population of approximately 125,000 and conveniently located approximately two hours from both Chicago and St. Louis. The community is home to GROWMARK, Illinois Farm Bureau, State Farm Insurance International Headquarters, Illinois Wesleyan University, Lincoln College, and Heartland Community College. The community has distinguished itself for its outstanding school systems and educational attainment, parks and recreation, health care, job growth, economic opportunity, and low crime. In 2016, Huffington Post named Bloomington one of the "11 Amazing Cities You've Never Thought To Live In, But Should." Bloomington was also recently placed on Livability.com's list of 100 Best Places to Live.
